For plow-shapes go to Clarksons' at Annapolis. They have diamond and shovel moulds, both finished and unfinished; also finished bull-tongues, double shovel blades twisting shovels, with bolts all complete; plow-steel, in fact, everything needed in the "plow" line.

Our young friend, Bart Brown, of St. Joe Lead Mines, came over to Ironton Monday, in search of carpenters, who are needed to assist in putting up new buildings at the mines. He found our mechanics with their hands full of work at home, and had to return as he came.
We trust he had better luck in some less prosperous region.

Saturday evening, about dusk, Mr. Mund, of Pilot Knob, had his arm broken by a blast in the tunnel. He, with two others, after setting fire to the blast, had retired to what they thought was a safe distance. But their judgment wasn't good, and when the explosion took place, a shower of stones fell about them, resulting as above noted. The other two men were not hurt. Mr. M. will probably be laid up for a month.

Notwithstanding the severe frost of Monday night of last week, and several lighter ones, the fruit crop in this section is in good condition. Peaches have not escaped unscathed, but enough are left to answer all purposes, while apples, pears, plums, and all the smaller fruits promise an exceedingly well. In our opinion, this will be one of the most prolific fruit seasons Iron county has ever seen, providing some great and as yet unapprehended disaster does not overtake us.

Last Thursday, Lawrence Griffith, a little son of Dr. N. C. Griffith, aged about seven years, fell from the fence on the schoolhouse grounds, and broke his leg. He had climbed on the fence and by some means his foot became fastened between the pickets. In his exertions to get it free, he lost his balance and fell, twisting his leg and breaking the ti-bia. He was shortly afterward taken home, and Dr. Farrar called in. The bone was set, and he is now getting along nicely.

THE WESTERN RURAL.—We call attention to the Western Rural of Chicago, as being one of the best and most enterprising Agricultural and Family papers in our country.
It is pushing forward in commendable enterprise in demanding some reforms, which when accomplished, will prove of innumerable benefit to the public.

The Rural presents a healthy appearance, and is no doubt receiving, as it deserves, an extremely liberal support from the agricultural classes. Subscription price, $1.65 per year.
Send for free sample copy.

Monday morning a man named Shafer, a blacksmith from Pilot Knob—drew a revolver in Grandhomme's saloon and flourished it about the face of the bar-keeper in an entirely too free and careless way. So the "minions of the law" took charge of him and his weapon, and lodged them both in jail. As soon as he had "cooled off" sufficiently, he was taken before Judge Dinkler, who, after hearing the evidence, mulcted him in a fine. A loaded revolver flourished in the hands of a drunken man is by no means a pleasant sight to the bystanders, and the offense ought to be severely punished.

Circuit court commenced on Monday afternoon the arrival of Judge Dinkler, the grand jury was immediately sworn in and "charged," and business began. We have noticed the following attorneys from adjoining counties: Judge Pickin, and Hon. J. L. Thomas, of Jefferson; Hon. M. L. Clardy and Judge Carter, of St.
Francisco; Capt. W. T. Loper, of Wayne; and J. Ed. F. Edwards, of "Old Missouri." There are others, probably in addition to the members of the local bar, but they have not yet caught the Reporter's eye. A large docket of criminal and civil cases will probably occupy the court for two weeks or longer.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday morning, about 7 o'clock, as a north bound freight was approaching the Ironton depot, one of the trucks jumped the track and thumped along until just beyond the road crossing by McAllister's, when two cars were derailed.
We learn that a brakeman was on one of the ditched cars and escaped what might have been a severe accident had the train been going at full speed. The only damage done was the derauling of the trucks of the two cars, which were loaded with cotton. The cars were derailed on the new steel rails lately laid down. After a delay of a couple of hours, everything was again in passing order.

The Ironton Public Schools closed for the year last Friday. From all that we have heard general satisfaction has been given by the teachers, Mr. R. M. Hunter and Miss Emma Griffith. The schools have been orderly, and the pupils have made good progress in their studies. The following is the teachers' report for the year:
Number of teachers in school, 3.
Length of term, 8 months.
Number of scholars enrolled, 137.
Number of days' attendance of all scholars, 13855.
Average number of scholars attending each day, 88.
Average number of days' attendance by each scholar, 101.

Hon. Messrs Ward made a speech at the courthouse last Monday, during the course of which he admitted that he bolted the nomination of Hatcher in 1873, and ran independent.
After acknowledging that this was "an error," the speaker said, "But is that to be brought up against me forever?" Probably not; but if Mr. Ward holds that his action in 1873 ought to be overlooked now by reason of the lapse of time and his subsequent good behavior, he certainly ought to accord the same mercy and forgiveness to Mr. Davis. Yet the burden of his speech Monday was some alleged political short-comings of Mr. Davis in 1865-66. To be consistent, Mr. Ward ought long ago have forgiven, and those alleged delinquencies should now be beyond the scope of his retentive memory.

If we have a rule from which do not deviate, it is relative to anonymous communications. We never, never—well, hardly ever—publish one. However, for the sake of novelty, we make an exception in favor of the following item sent us last Monday, and give it to our readers, just as it was received. We know too much, we trust, to attempt to paint the lily or gild the refined gold:

I have some-think o' say to the Pilot Knob young men. Look out for the Grand query is going to start a gun, and the Pilot Knob girls are glad that the query is going to start. The girls of Pilot Knob say that their ar know nise young men hear the girls of Pilot Knob say the Stone-cutters ar the Boys far us the Stone-cutters they will all take of their hats and make a nice Bou to us, and more then that they will by a pouck foul of Canby far us.
The Stone-cutters will be her Soon again.
The girls of Pilot Knob ar turing their nose agents the boys.
Sind. PILOT.

A meeting of the Young Men's Literary and Debate Society will take place Saturday, May 1st, at the American Hotel, for the purpose of organizing. A cordial invitation is extended by the members to all those interested.

Last Saturday evening, about six o'clock, a serious affray took place in Arcadia, between S. G. Smith and Wm. Smith, both residents of Marble Creek. They had been in Ironton during the day. Smith, with his team, started home a little before the time above stated, and with him were his wife and a young man named Vance. Mr. Shular also started homeward a few minutes after, and overtook them near Delano's mill. A quarrel ensued about a sack of flour, which was kept up until they had gone as far as Mr. Evans' residence in Arcadia, when Smith jumped out of his wagon and Shular got off his horse. The latter picked up a rock and Smith pulled out a pocketknife. An encounter followed in which Shular was stabbed three times: once under the shoulder blade, once on the ribs, and a third cut under the ribs on the left side, which penetrated the cavity, making a dangerous wound. Shular staggered to the side of the road and called for help. W. A. Fletcher heard him, came to his assistance, and took him into his house, where the wounded man is now lying under the doctor's care. He may get well, but if he does, it will be a "touch-and-go."

Smith, after the affray, went home, where he was arrested by Constables Dixon and Patton a few hours afterward. He was brought to town and is now lying in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. We shall give further particulars after the trial shall have been had.

The undersigned has taken charge of the estate of J. P. Dillingham, deceased, and he requests all persons having in their possession law-books or other property belonging to said estate to return them to one:

propose to make everything nice and pleasant for everybody who may visit them on that endeavor. Music will be given by the band at short intervals all day. No admission fee will be charged—bear that in mind—and you are requested to come and enjoy yourself, "without money and without price"—except for extras, and you needn't order them unless you want to. In the evening a ball will be given at the American Hotel, the invitations

The Best and Cheapest Weekly Newspaper in America!

The St. Louis Weekly
Post-Dispatch.

A Virtual Newspaper Gift to the Farmers of the West.

The publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, with a view to placing the Weekly in the hands of every Democrat in Missouri and of the West, during this critical Presidential contest, will send the Weekly Post-Dispatch, free of postage, to any post-office in the United States—

SIX MONTHS FOR 30 CENTS.

THREE MONTHS FOR 21 CENTS.

This is actually below the cost of the white paper. In other words, for five cents per month you can have a large eight-page journal or forty-eight columns—enough interesting reading matter every week to fill a little book—Market reports, Agricultural gleanings, fresh telegraphic news, Household hints, entertaining stories, miscellany and all the features of a first class weekly newspaper—a complete mirror of all the events of the week.

In making this extraordinary proposition the publisher is actuated by a desire to build up a large circulation, and to aid the cause of DEMOCRACY in the final struggle against IN-TEREST and CENTRALIZATION. Only the prosperity of the Daily Post-Dispatch enables him to furnish the Weekly at absolutely less than the cost of the white paper upon which it is printed.

Remember that for Thirty Cents or Ten Three-Cent Postage Stamps you can have the Weekly Post-Dispatch sent to you by mail free of postage, for 8 x Months.

That for TWENTY-ONE CENTS or seven postage stamps, you can have the Weekly Post-Dispatch mailed to you for Three Months, free of postage.

These terms are specially arranged for single postage stamp subscriptions—a convenience that will be readily appreciated.

THE WEEKLY POST-DISPATCH is regarded by the press everywhere as a brilliant, live newspaper. Its Democracy is indorsed by the greatest leaders of the party as of the most positive and aggressive character.
By way of inducement to friends to get up clubs at this new and unequalled rate, we will send a copy of the Weekly for six months to any person who will forward us TEN subscriptions for that period. For FIFTY names we will furnish the Daily Post-Dispatch for six months free of postage. We want ONE HUNDRED THIRTY subscribers for the Weekly Post-Dispatch at these marvelously low rates, and we expect to have them. Every true friend of Democracy is requested to place this Prospectus under the eyes or within the reach of his neighbors.
